LAKE SIDE

CHURCH OF CHRIST

From Joe's Desk... As I Look Back.....

May 10, 2015

As I look back on my life

I find myself wondering....

Did I remember to thank you

For all that you have done for me?

For all of the times you were by my side to help me celebrate my successes and accept my defeats?

Or for teaching me the value of hard work, good judgment, courage, and honesty?

I wonder if I've ever thanked you for the simple things.....

The laughter, smiles and quiet times we've shared?

If I have forgotten to express my gratitude

For any of these things,

I am thanking you now...

And I am hoping that you've known all along how very much you are loved and appreciated.

From Andy's Desk..... Window Tint

Recently, we got the windows tinted in our family car. With summer coming up, we thought it might be nice to have some extra shade from the hot Florida sun. Plus, there's nothing more awkward than pulling up to a red light and making eye contact with someone when you're singing along to the Frozen as loudly as you can, or maybe even picking your nose. We decided a little extra privacy the tinted windows afford might be nice as well!

This got me thinking. We got tinted windows to block out stares from strangers, but spiritually and emotionally, we can not put a "tint" over ourselves and shut out people whom we know and love. We hear so many sermons on how to be there for our Christian brothers and sisters, but we also need to let our Christian family help us in our times of need. For them to be able to do this, we need to be like our former car windows: transparent. In Romans 12, Paul advises the Christians to "rejoice with those who rejoice, weep with those who weep. Be of the same mind toward one another." (v15-16a). Also, James 5:16 says, "Confess your trespasses to one another, and pray for one another, that you may be healed. The effective, fervent prayer of a righteous man available much." Finally, Galatians 6:2 sums it up nicely: "bear one another's burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ."

You see, I can't put a cloak around my life, or shut everyone out. If our Christian brothers and sisters are to fulfill the law of Christ, we need to let them! Don't hide your troubles from those who truly love you!
